It may sound strange that the Christian stat onvention, a body which has had annual meetngs for the past thirty years, should spend a day in adopting a constitution. For many years discarded, and finally ceased to be regarded. The necessity of a constitution has recently bene pressing, hence the adoption.

The Sedalia Exposition.

We are in receipt of the catalogue and other nted matter of the Sedalla Expedition, whose tiful grounds at Sicher's Park, Sedalit. 5th to 9th inclusive, five days in all. The premiums offered amount to $10,00 3,200 of which is for the speed ring. In lookng over the catalogue we find that very liberal of my ums have been offered for Poultry, Sheep, ttle, Horses and Mules. The Sedalia Exposition has given excellent eetings in the past, and this year expects to irpass all former efforts, as a series of novel and I will save you money. The grounds are the most beautiful in the state, and the improvements surpass anything of the same kind in Missouri. If you have anything you wish to exhibit, write, asking for catalogue, to W. L. BEITLER, ecretary, Sedalia, Mo.

Nothing succeeds like success. Mostly uccessful merchants are spoken of as being ucky, that is not our case, for we never had the least particle of luck, though we do possess a full knowledge of our busines obtained by close application and by care fully studying the tastes of our patrons, and have always succeeded in making a selection sequently our business has assumed such large proportions that we were compelled to add another store-room 20 75 feet, in order to have room for our immense stock of tal and winter dry goods, carpets, oil cloths &c., which is continuing to arrive-we thus have a frontage on Frakiln street of 50 feet by a depth of 75 feet or an area 3,750 square feet. We shall continue laboring to retain our present patronage and extend a cordia invilation to all parties in want of good goods at the lowest price, to visit us.
